I/we understand that if I/we give the proxy document as a representative of an entity (incl. estate), the legal representative of the entity or a person authorised by the entity must provide necessary documents to verify the right to represent the entity (e.g. trade register extract or a copy of a board resolution). Voting instructions:

At the General Meeting, the proxy representative shall exercise the voting rights of the shareholder granting the authorisation in each of the items on the agenda of the General Meeting as indicated with a cross (X) below.

- The option “Yes” or “In favour” means that the shareholder is in favour of approving the proposal.
- The option “No” or “Against” means that the shareholder objects to the acceptance of the proposal. By voting in advance, it is not possible to submit a counterproposal to the meeting or demand a voting.
- “Abstain from voting” means giving an empty vote and that shares are considered to be represented in the General Meeting, although the shares are not considered voting in favour or against anything. This is meaningful, for example, in resolutions requiring qualified majority, as in qualified majority items all shares represented at the General Meeting are taken into account and abstentions thus have the same effect as votes Against/No. Therefore, abstaining from voting affects the voting result. Shareholders should be aware of this, especially if giving a vote against is not their intention.

The Shareholder’s shares are not taken into consideration in an item in question, not considered as shares represented at the General Meeting and not counted as cast votes with regard to the item in question if

- no voting instructions have been indicated below;
- multiple voting instructions have been indicated for the same item; or
- markings or text other than a cross (X) have been used to indicate a voting instruction.

Unless otherwise stated, the given voting instructions are assumed to concern all shares of the shareholder.
